

Carolina Medical Center operates a helicopter located at the airport. It is available 24/7 for accident response.

The Rock Hill York County Airport was built in 1959. A new terminal building was built in 1999.

Pictured on the left Dr. H.H. Plemmons, a charter member of the airport commission was instrumental in locating the land in 1956 for the current airport. On the right, a member of the SC State Guard, provided escort for Dr. Plemmons at the airports 50th anniversary celebration.

The surveillance and broadcast services tower provides position information of aircraft to Air Traffic Control. Aircraft also receive position information from other aircraft.